PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

I am a dedicated academician and researcher with extensive experience in higher education, research, and public engagement. With a strong background in political science, multi-ethnic society and media studies. I have developed expertise in teaching, research, and scholarly publishing. My work spans across various academic institutions, think tanks, and policy-driven organizations, where I have contributed to research on governance, media, ethnic politics, and sustainability.

With over six years of professional experience, I have held roles in academia, public administration, and media, gaining valuable skills in qualitative, quantitative, and ethnographic research. I have published in SCOPUS-indexed journals and presented at international conferences, demonstrating my commitment to academic excellence and impactful research. Additionally, my experience in project management, public relations, and policy analysis has equipped me with the ability to drive institutional growth and innovation.

I am passionate about interdisciplinary research and policy-oriented scholarship, aiming to contribute to knowledge production and informed decision-making in governance, migration, and sustainability. My teaching philosophy emphasizes critical thinking, diversity, and student engagement, making me a valuable asset to any academic or research institution.
